NEXT MONDAY LAST DAY OF THE BIG BONUS OFFER.

Never Again Will You Be Able To Get As Many Votes On Your Subscriptions, for After 9 O'Clock Next Monday Night the Vote Schedule Will Take a Big Drop and Continue So During the Remainder of the Contest—Your Efforts Now Will Mean Success or Defeat.

GET BIG SUBSCRIPTIONS.

A New Twelve Year Subscription Brings 248,000 Votes; a New Ten-Year Subscription 207,000 Votes, Etc.—One or Two Big Subscriptions Will Add a Great Deal to Your Standing and May Mean a Prize For You.

9 o'clock Monday night, Dec. 2. Make a note of the date and hour for on next Monday night, Dec. 2, at 9 o'clock the big bonus vote offer will come to a close. On and after that date and hour the vote schedule will take a big drop and continue so during the remainder of the contest. It's your last chance to get these big votes so don't fail to gather in every subscription possible before that time. Get big subscriptions if you possibly can for they bring a large number of votes and you will need every vote to win. Call in the coin without fail. Don't let anything hinder you from collecting every available dollar that has been promised before next Monday night. It's this very bonus that will make a difference between success and being left out in the cold.

CASH YOUR PROMISES.

All contestants have a number of friends who have promised their support but have been shy on handing over the coin. It is inevitable and the only thing to do is to impress upon those persons that the limit has been reached and that by their withholding the sinews of war your chances are being seriously imperiled.

NOTICE.

The contest will come to a close on Saturday, December 7—just five days after the big bonus offer closes. The last vote coupon will appear in the paper today and all coupons clipped from the paper must be polled before December 2. We do this to clear the boards for the judges on the final count. No vote coupons will appear in the paper next week. Vote ballots issued on subscriptions are good at any time up to the close of the contest and can be held until the last day if desired.

BAND CONCERT DEC. 7.

The News is glad to announce that it has secured the Paris High School Band for the closing day. Band concerts will be given in front of the News office on both the afternoon and evening of Dec. 7. Full details of the contest day celebration will be made next Tuesday.

The Contest Manager issues a warning that no checks will be accepted on Friday and Saturday, Dec. 6th and 7th. If you take checks for subscriptions, have them made payable to yourself, and then convert into cash before making your final settlement.

ON THE HOME STRETCH.

Today we are starting on the "home stretch" of this fascinating race and with a fair field and no favors it is impossible to hazard a guess as to who the winners are likely to be. Up to the present time, the race has been fairly even so the result will all depend on what you and your friends do this last week. Behind you are several weeks of ambitious effort and tireless trying to win the honor and the prizes which go with it. Ahead of you stretches just seven days in which it is to be determined whether you are to achieve success and its subsequent joys or to suffer defeat and the pangs Objectionable Negroes.

During the past month the depredations committed by unruly negroes in this section have been numerous and with the coming of winter they are expected to increase in number and to such an extent that the police may be unable to cope with the situation.

Local negroes cannot be accused of the crimes that have been almost beyond number, for with a few exceptions they are law abiding. Some few, of course, make the burden heavier on the other members of the race. However, the depredations are the work of imported negroes.

The wrecking of the Louisville and Nashville passenger train near Paris, the murder of Deputy Sheriff Hart at Winchester, the firing upon a railroad employe near this city, by a desperate black, and a number of other murder, shooting and cutting scrapes can be safely laid at the doors of the imported negroes.

Who is responsible for such conditions? Who is to blame for flooding good communities with such objectionable characters? None other than railroad contractors, who gather together gangs for railroad labor.

The negroes are the most desperate of their race. In most cases they are fugitives from justice, guilty of almost every conceivable offence—murder, rape, arson—driven from their homes because of some heinous crime, they have committed, they escape the clutches of the law, move to new localities, break the law and again are compelled to vacate to thwart the arm of justice.

Such classes of negroes are a menace to their own race, to the public safety and good. Their unlawful acts are bad examples to set before the law abiding negroes. With the approach of cold weather, and the scarcity of work, they must resort to something to gain a livelihood. Theft and murder may be the result, but how are they to be prevented?

The police of Paris have made every effort to put a stop to the practices of the negroes, who spend most of their time in town when not working. Many carry concealed weapons, and would not hesitate to take a human life to accomplish their purpose. There must be some measures adopted to rid the community of the "bad" men, and done before it is too late, and before a good life pays the forfeit.

Another serious objection that could be revised is the lower element of negroes who make Paris their permanent homes. Vagrants, both male and female, are to be seen every day. Complaints are numerous that housekeepers are unable to secure negro labor for housework. There should be a remedy for this—a jail sentence does no good, and the workhouse has but little effect. Something should be done to relieve the condition even if extreme measures have to be resorted to.

Children's Right of Liberty. Do not forget that every child has a right to some leisure and some freedom from observation. It is possible to be too watchful. If children are taught to drink after food and not with it, as a normal thing they will do it naturally, and suffer less from digestive troubles than if they drink frequently during a meal.

Wisdom, Skill and Virtue. Wisdom is knowing what to do next; skill is knowing how to do it, and virtue is doing it.—David Starr Jordan.

Merely Muddy. "People are allus imprest," said Grandpa Stubblegrass, "by what they can't see through. Many a stream gits credit fur bein' deep when it's only muddy."—Washington Star.

Stay at Home Vote.

That there was a big stay at home vote in the recent presidential election in Kentucky is evidenced by the official figures as given out from Frankfort.

The vote cast for Wilson was smaller by 24,598 than the vote recorded for Bryan in 1908, and the combined vote of Taft and Roosevelt was smaller by 17,433 than Taft's vote of four years ago. This a loss of 42,021 from the aggregate Democratic and Republican vote. Viewed in connection with the natural increase in the number of voters during the four year period it shows clearly that a great number of Kentucky voters did not take the trouble to vote.

It is easily seen that the Democrats suffered most by reason of this stay at home vote. In Jefferson county alone the Democratic vote fell off over two thousand as compared with the Bryan vote of four years ago, while the combined Taft and Roosevelt vote was only 155 below the Taft vote of four years ago. The tremendous Democratic plurality of 104,072 over the Taft electors in the State dwindles to a majority of 1,032 over the combined vote of the Taft and Roosevelt electoral tickets. There is a falling off of more than 7,000 in the Democratic presidential vote in 1912 as compared with the Democratic gubernatorial vote in 1911. On the contrary the combined Taft and Roosevelt presidential vote is larger by nearly 23,000 than the Republican gubernatorial vote in 1911.

The Socialist party increased its total vote from 4,069 in 1908 to 11,674. Assuming that all this increase came from the old parties there remain many thousands of voters who failed to work up enough enthusiasm in the recent campaigns to go to the polls.

Camden's Services.

Mr. Camden puts at rest the suggestion that he would seek the Senatorship at the August primary. The dignified statement will increase the respect won by Mr. Camden by the conduct of the campaign of 1912. When the friends of Mr. Camden desire to suggest his name for any office in the future they can rest their argument on the services rendered in 1911 and in 1912.

In this regeneration of the Democratic party other men have had an active and honorable part. The Kentucky delegation in Congress have had a part in the national success of the party, and the State Administration, the late Legislature and the managers of the campaign have pursued a wise, sagacious and successful course.

Much remains to do. The Democratic party can remain in power only by continued services in promoting those policies, city, State and National, to which the party has pledged itself.

In this direction Mr. Camden has done much to awaken a proper party spirit; a spirit of loyalty and devotion; a spirit that serves instead of plunders. It is difficult, as the records show, to make the average voter understand that he should support the party rather than look to the party for personal support. Mr. Camden has set an example which should have its effect throughout the State. If other Democrats will follow the example of Mr. Camden the Democratic party will soon resume its former commanding position.

Fulfillment.

He (in a restaurant with his best girl)—You don't know how happy you have made me by saying "Yes," darling. It will be my dearest wish to make earth a paradise for you and to fulfill your wishes before you utter them. Waitress, bring a portion of cheese for the young lady.—Elie-gende Blaetter.

What She Meant.

"My husband is a mental division," said a woman witness, in an English court. The clerk presumed that she intended to say "mentally deficient."

Nervous Troubles

Drive Away Happiness

Tona Vita Will Quickly Drive Away the Nervous Troubles.

People who are all run down in health, who are worn out, nervous and half sick, are apt to be thoroughly discouraged. They are half hearted, listless and depressed and feel that this is a terrible world with many pains in it and few pleasures.

This state of mind is recognized by physicians as a common symptom of nervous debility.

If you are one of the many Americans who are suffering with nervous breakdown or nerve exhaustion, you can get back your old health and spirits in a few weeks' time. Go to your druggist and obtain a bottle of Tona Vita. This remarkable tonic is helping thousands back to health and it will not fail in your case. In fact, it never fails. You will be astonished how quickly it will build you up both in mind and body.

Tona Vita is sold by Chas. E. Butler & Co.

MAN AND THE SOIL.

Dr. R. V. Pierce of Buffalo, author of the Common Sense Medical Adviser, says "why does not the farmer treat his own body as he treats the land he cultivates? He puts back in phosphate what he takes out in crops, or the land would grow poor. The farmer should put back into his body the vital elements exhausted by labor, or by ill-health induced by some chronic disease." Further, he says, "the great value of my Doctor Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery is in its vitalizing power. It gives strength to the stomach and purity to the blood. It is like the phosphates which supply nature with the substances that build up the crops. The far-reaching action of Doctor Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery is due to its effect on the stomach and organs of digestion and nutrition. Diseases that begin in the stomach are cured through the stomach. A bilious spell is simply the result of an effort made by the liver to catch up when over-worked and exhausted. I have found the 'Discovery' to be unsurpassed as a liver regulator and rich blood-maker."

Miss Lorenz Kinsley of Perth, Kansas, says: "I will here add my testimony of the effectiveness of your remedy upon myself. I was troubled with indigestion for two years or more. Doctored with three different doctors besides taking numerous kinds of so-called 'stomach cures' but received no permanent relief. I was run down, could not sleep at night with the pain in my chest, caused by gas on the stomach. Was weak, could not do anything although I was hungry nearly all the time. About one year and a half ago I began taking your 'Golden Medical Discovery,' and after having taken several bottles am nearly cured of stomach trouble. Can now eat without distress and have gained fifteen pounds in weight. I thank you for your remedy and wish you all success in your good work."

The Demons of the Swamp

are mosquitoes. As they sting they put deadly malaria germs in the blood. Then follow the chills and the fever. The appetite flies and the strength fails; also malaria often paves the way for deadly typhoid. But Electric Bitters kill and cast out the malaria germs from the blood; give you a fine appetite and renew your strength. "After long suffering," wrote Wm. Fretwell, of Lucama, N. C. "three bottles drove all the malaria from my system, and I've had good health ever since." Best for all stomach, liver and kidney ills. 50 cents at Oberdorfer's.

Our Own Business.

Whilst I do what is fit for me and abstain from what is unfit, my neighbor and I shall often agree in our means and work together for a time to one end. But whenever I find my dominion over myself is not sufficient for me and undertake the direction of him also, I overstep the truth and come into false relations to him.—Ralph Waldo Emerson.

Helps a Judge in Bad Fix.

Justice Eli Cherry, of Gillis Mill, Tenn., was plainly worried. A bad sore on his leg had baffled several doctors and long resisted all remedies. "I thought it was a cancer," he wrote. "At last I used Bucklen's Arnica Salve and was completely cured." Cures burns, boils, ulcers, cuts, bruises and piles. 25 cents at Oberdorfer's.

Begin Well.

Finish every day and be done with it. You have done what you could. Some blunders and absurdities, no doubt, crept in; forget them as soon as you can. Tomorrow is a new day; begin it well and serenely, and with too high a spirit to be cumbered with your old nonsense. This day is all that is good and fair. It is too dear, with its hopes and invitations, to waste a moment on the yesterdays.—Emerson.

WORDS FROM HOME.

Statements That May be Investigated. Testimony of Paris Citizens.

When a Paris citizen comes to the front, telling his friends and neighbors of his experience, you can rely on his sincerity. The statements of people residing in far away places do not command your confidence. Home endorsement is the kind that backs Doan's Kidney Pills. Such testimony is convincing. Investigation proves it true. Below is a statement of a Paris resident. No stronger proof of merit can be had.

M. Holleran, 200 West Seventh street, Paris, Ky., says: "Doan's Kidney Pills are mighty good and I am glad to praise them to everyone. I had a lot of trouble from my back and kidneys. The action of my kidneys caused me much suffering and sometimes the passages of the secretions were painful. I had backaches too. I used many medicines but was not benefited until I took Doan's Kidney Pills. They soon made me better and stronger."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

STOCK, CROP AND FARM NOTES.

—Mat Holman, of Bath county, sold recently to the Kentucky Blue Grass Seed Co., at Mt. Sterling, 8,000 bushels of blue grass seed at 63 cents.

—There was a large demand for cattle at Georgetown court Monday. A lot of 850 pound cattle sold as high as $5.98 1-2, yearling cattle $5.92 and heifers $4.50.

—Hay and corn continue to advance in price as the winter approaches. Timothy hay is selling for $15 a ton while corn is selling at from $2.25 to $2.50 per barrel.

—James B. Haggin has purchased of S. Higgins Lewis 73 acres of land on the Russell Cave pike which will be added to his Elemendorf possessions in Fayette. The price was private.

—Mr. W. P. Givens, a well known farmer of Boyle county, has out-classed all farmers in Central Kentucky raising alfalfa, receiving the past season the sum of $160 per acre for his total yield.

—The Montgomery County Fair Association is advertising a colt stake for the Mt. Sterling fair next year to be worth $3,500, the first premium being $600 and the twentieth $75.

—With the advent of freezing weather hog killing will now be the order of the day. The warm spell has prevented the slaughtering of hogs for the family meat. Choice spare-ribs, back-bones and sausage of the home made kind will soon make their appearance on the local markets.

—Turkeys for Christmas will be even higher than prices paid for Thanksgiving. While the crop of turkeys was short in this section this year and the supply hardly equal to the demand for Thanksgiving there will be only a few of the fowls left for Christmas. The highest price paid this season was 16 cents on the local market.

—The problem of securing laborers is perplexing to the farmers of this section. Not more than one half of the corn crop has been shucked because of the scarcity of farm hands, and one farmer has complained that after procuring a corn shredder, which he thought would facilitate the handling of his large crop of corn, he has been unable to secure a sufficient number of men to operate it, and as a consequence it has been setting idle for almost a month. Farmers of this county are willing to pay almost any price to secure men.

You Want the Best— Not the Cheapest

Flanders "20" Roadster, $750

Don't be alarmed if somebody tells you you can buy an automobile for less money than the $750 Studebaker-Flanders "20." You can, but you better not. The Flanders "20" corresponds point by point with the best and highest priced cars sold. Cheaper cars at every vital point are built on ideas long ago discarded for good cars. Don't take our word for it. Make comparisons and see.

The Studebaker-Flanders "20" is a marvel—a high grade modern car at a low price. If you pay less you buy much less. And the cheaper car today will cost you far more in the long run. The competing car isn't sold which the Studebaker Corporation, the greatest automobile manufacturers in the world, couldn't reproduce for less money; but we won't build a cheap car, because the name "Studebaker" means the best for your money.

If you are content with a car that runs today and dies tomorrow, don't buy the $750 Flanders "20." It will wear for years. Remember this—the Studebaker-Flanders "20" will outwear 2 to 1 any other car under $1100 and give you double satisfaction, confidence and comfort into the bargain.

We can prove it—Send for new catalogue

DEATHS.

LARUE.

—Mr. John A. Larue, one of the best known and most prominent farmers of Bourbon county, died suddenly at his home near Shawhan, Tuesday afternoon at 5 o'clock. Heart disease was the cause of his death.

Several months ago Mr. Larue suffered an attack of heart trouble, while enroute to his home from a field on the place and he was assisted to his home, where he remained in a dangerous condition for several days. He recovered, and while not in the best of health, his condition was in no way alarming to the members of his family. He was a visitor in Paris Monday, coming here on business.

On the afternoon of his death Mr. Larue took one of his sisters to Shawhan and placed her aboard a train enroute to Paris, and after attending to the shipment of a barrel of fruit to relatives in St. Louis he returned home.

Turning his horse over to an attendant Mr. Larue went into the house and chatted pleasantly with the members of his family who were gathered about the fire in the sitting room. Directly after seating himself he leaned forward in his chair and became unconscious. Dr. George Rankin, of Shawhan, was summoned, but when he arrived death had ensued. Death was due to organic heart trouble.

Mr. Larue was one of the best and most progressive farmers of Bourbon county. Being a safe business man he was identified with a number of business enterprises. Associated with him in farming was his brother, Mr. Chas. Larue, who was identified with the Bourbon Tobacco Warehouse Co., the Bourbon County Agricultural Society. He was a director of the First National Bank of Paris, and was a member of the Bourbon County Board of Control of the Burley Tobacco Society.

Mr. Larue was a devout member of the Baptist church, professing religious faith at an early age, and was closely identified with all the interests of his church and gave liberally to its causes.

Mr. Larue, who at the time of his death, was in his fifty-ninth year, was a native of Mason county. For a number of years he was the proprietor of the Blue Lick Springs Hotel and also conducted a large mercantile store at that point. He dealt extensively in tobacco and as a result amassed an immense fortune.

About twenty-five years ago his father purchased the elegant country home of Mr. George Bowen, on the Cynthiana pike near Shawhan, the place comprising about four hundred acres of rich land. The family was moving to the property when the elder Mr. Larue, who was entering the house to attend to some duty, fell to the pavement and expired. His death was also due to heart trouble.

The property passed into the hands of the Larue brothers, who managed the estate successfully for a quarter of a century, and in the death of the junior member of the firm, Bourbon county loses one of its most substantial business men and one of its most generous and useful citizens.

Mr. Larue was never married. He is survived by four sisters, Mrs. Preston, of St. Louis; Mrs. F. W. Eberhardt, of Frankfort, and Misses Lizzie and Tillie Larue, who live at the family home and two brothers, Mr. Frank Larue, of St. Louis, and Mr. Charlie Larue, of Shawhan.

The funeral will take place this afternoon at 1 o'clock at the family residence. The services will be conducted by his pastor, Rev. E. M. Lightfoot, of the Baptist church.

The active pall bearers will be John T. Collins, James McClure, C. M. Thomas, Woodford Spears, Dr. C. G. Daugherty and Thomas Henry Clay, Jr. The honorary pall bearers will be Mr. Larue's brother officers in the Baptist church, Charles Stephens, Wm. H. Clark, Silas Bedford, J. T. Martin and Henry Glover, of Covington.

Mr. Larue's sisters, Mrs. F. W. Eberhardt, of Frankfort, and Mrs. Preston, of St. Louis, arrived. Mr. Frank Larue, who was in Texas, was delayed at Dallas, but will reach here in time for the funeral.

LEWIS.

Mr. Asa K. Lewis, aged 70 years, died at his home in Big Timber, Mont., on Nov. 15. He was the son of the late Mr. Douglas P. Lewis, one of the wealthiest men in the county, owning a large tract of land on Cane Ridge. Mr. Lewis left Kentucky about five years ago and for two years made his home in Asheville, N. C., then moved to Big Timber, where he has since resided.

He is survived by his widow and one son, Richard Lewis, and one sister, Mrs. Frank Armstrong, and two brothers, Howard and Frank Lewis. Mr. Lewis is an uncle of Mrs. Anne H. Embury and Mr. Geo. Howard, of Paris and of Hon. H. Clay Howard, United States Minister to Peru.

The groom is a prosperous young farmer, residing in the Centerville neighborhood. The happy couple were showered with congratulations by the clerical force of the store and a number of shoppers. They left for Centerville after the ceremony, where they will reside.

League Directors Meet.

The directors of the Blue Grass League met in the offices of the Lexington Base Ball Club in the City National Bank building, at Lexington Tuesday, and passed on a large amount of routine business, discussed the financial conditions of the various clubs in the league at present, the advisability of increasing the size of the league, and made arrangements to hold a meeting at the same place on Tuesday, January 7, at 11 o'clock when new officers will be elected to fill the position of President and Secretary-Treasurer, made vacant by the resignations of Mr. William Neal and Mr. George L. Martin, both of Louisville. The incumbents will hold offices, however, until the new officers have been elected.

It was decided by a unanimous vote that every club in the league should put up $500 in the hands of the Treasurer at the beginning of the season, to be forfeited in case the club failed to finish the season in the league.

The representatives from each of the towns in the league reported a fairly prosperous condition, and all felt that the coming year would be a successful one. Those present were: Messrs. William Neal, President of the Blue Grass League; Thomas A. Sheets, President, and Hogan Yancey, Manager, of the Lexington club; S. S. Pinney, President of the Mt. Sterling club; J. W. Bacon, President of the Paris club; Edward Blanton, President, and Warfield Bennet, Secretary-Treasurer, of the Richmond club; A. L. Coleman, Manager of the Frankfort club; T. M. Russell, President and James Summers, Secretary-Treasurer, of the Maysville club.

It was decided to postpone the selection of a President and Secretary for the League until January 7, 1913, at which time another meeting will be held.

The directors will try to pick a high class man to act as President of the League without salary, the League paying only necessary expenses. The position of Secretary is to be filled with some man who is willing to accept a nominal salary, and who can keep the records and do the necessary clerical work for the League.

Among the names mentioned favorably to head the Bluegrass League as President were those of Hon. Emmett M. Dickson and Attorney James M. O'Brien, of Paris.

John T. Brush, millionaire base ball magnate and president of the New York Nationals, died in his private car at St. Louis, Mo., Tuesday, as he was enroute to Southern California in search of health.

Horace Fogel, head of the Philadelphia National League Club, tendered his resignation as a National League magnate Tuesday. Certain charges against Fogel were being investigated by the National Commission.

TUESDAY.

In Circuit Court Tuesday the case of Richard Henson, charged with malicious cutting, was tried, resulting in the jury returning a verdict of acquittal. Henson was charged with cutting Cleve Weaver in a difficulty at Riddles Mills.

The grand jury, which resumed its sessions Tuesday morning spent the entire day in investigating the case of Mack Jones, and an indictment against him was returned. Jones is charged with the murder of a negro named Jonas during a card game at the pond on the Griffith farm several months ago. He was captured in a cornfield on the farm of J. Hal Woodford on the Winchester pike after eluding the officers after the killing.

WEDNESDAY.

The case of the Commonwealth against Nathan Wells was tried in the Circuit Court Wednesday. Wells was charged with wilful and malicious shooting and the jury returned a verdict of a fine of $50.

The Commonwealth case against John Asher, charged with malicious cutting resulted in the acquittal of the defendant.

Jones was charged with shooting a negro by the name of Sam Custer in December, 1910. Custer was shot in the mouth at Martin Bros.' stable and as a result of the wound was rendered blind. Jones escaped after the shooting but was captured last spring by Patrolman Fred Link in this city.

Court adjourned Wednesday afternoon until this morning.

$1,000 for Serving Quail

If the judgment of the Fayette circuit court is sustained the Phoenix Hotel Company may have to pay $1,000 for serving quail to its guests. On a charge of violating the State game laws by having quail in its possession, the hotel management was fined $20 and costs in a test case heard before County Judge Scott. The case was tried Wednesday.

As there are thirty counts in all against the hotel, if the decision means a similar fine in all other cases, it is estimated that the fines and costs will aggregate approximately $1,000.

The birds found in the possession of the hotel by State Game Warden J. Quincy Ward were shipped from Chicago and were not slaughtered in this state, or the penalty would have been heavier. Supreme Court decisions were quoted by attorneys. Two Illinois game officials were in attendance.

Injured Shoulder Reset.

Mr. C. P. Bailey, of Pineville, Ky., a traveling salesman in the employ of the Power Grocery Company, of this city, is confined to his room in the Windsor Hotel and is under treatment for injuries received several weeks ago. Mr. Bailey, who was in Pineville about a month ago, accidentally fell from a doorway to the ground below, a distance of 21 feet, sustaining a broken hand and an injured shoulder. The injury, it was thought, was rapidly healing when a few days ago the leaders began to contract, necessitating the resetting of the bones in the hand and shoulder.

His injury is causing him a great amount of pain, but it is thought he will be sufficiently recovered in a few days to leave his room. He is under the care of Dr. Martha Petree, and is being shown every courtesy by the hotel management while the traveling men stopping at the hotel are adding to his comfort.

An accident occurred Wednesday morning about 2 o'clock near the city limits of Lexington in which the automobile of N. H. The automobiles were practically demolished and one occupant of the Owens' car, said to be a young woman from Paris, sustained a broken arm. "The Home of Good Things to Eat"

Dear Amy:-

Of course, you absolutely must have a nice parlor so you can entertain company. But I believe in having a nice parlor for your own family all the time, and that they should use it.

Children are influenced so much by their surroundings, and the best way to keep the boys at home nights, and out of mischief, is to make home attractive and happy for them.

Always your friend,

Lou.

Daily exercise for every one is splendid, and many up-to-date phys-concentrate the mind upon an exer-exercise listlessly gone through would do in six months.

Thoroughbreds to be Shipped.

Another big shipment of valuable thoroughbred brood mares, yearlings and weanlings is to be made out of Kentucky this week. They are the property of Mr. Catesby Woodford, owner of Raceland Stud and president of the Kentucky Association. and they number 62 head—34 brood mares, 16 yearlings and 12 weanlings. They were shipped from Paris Wednesday to New York from where they will sail Saturday for Germany, to be sold at auction the latter part of November at Hoppe-garten.

The shipment is under the supervision of Mr. Phil T. Chinn and the auction will be under the auspices of the German Jockey Club, with Mr.
George Ehlers, editor of Deutscher
Sport, directly in charge of the details of the sale.
Kentuckians feel that through this shipment American racing interests are sustaining a severe loss, but they at the same time realize that Mr.
Woodford, because of the repressionary laws in New York, could not possibly obtain their full value at home and perforce is compelled to go abroad for a fair market.

Assured of Fresh Fish.

Copenhagen has a model fish market, built by the municipality. With the exception of the larger varieties, like cod and halibut, all the fish are kept alive in tanks filled with running water. There is no other town where all the fish, whether cheap or dear, are so beautifully fresh.

Lost and Found.

Ex-Gov. Beckham for Senator.

The Legislature which will be elected next fall to meet in January, 1914, will choose a United States Senator to succeed Wm. O. Bradley, whose term will expire March 4, 1915. Under the new primary election law the candidates of the parties for Senator must be nominated at a primary held in August, 1912. The Democrats of Kentucky will have an opportunity at that time to stamoa with their disapproval the act by which ex-Governor J. C. W. Beckham was deprived of the Senatorship after having fairly won the nomination of his party, which should have been the same as an election, as the Democratic party was in control in both branches of the Legislature. The News does not know whether Mr. Beckham will be a candidate for Senator again but the people demand that he should be and that they be given the chance to show their desire to elevate Mr. Beckham to the Senatorship for which he is so well qualified.

Governor Beckham should be the Senator today instead of Wm. O. Bradley. That he will succeed Bradley seems as reasonably certain as any future event and the News looks forward with pleasurable anticipation to the hour when he shall come into his own and Mr. Bradley retire permanently to private life.

Goodness Never Futile.
There is no man so bad, but he secretly respects the good.—Benjamin Franklin.

Virtue Has Few Martyrs.
Among men virtue has many preachers but few martyrs.—Claude Adrien Helvetius.

Paris Generous in Tribute.
Paris is generous in statues erected to her heroes. Voltaire, for instance, is honored with four memorials. There are two to Diderot, of "Dictionnaire Encyclopedique" fame. The haughty but melancholy profile of the poet Alfred de Musset is to be seen in three places. Jeanne d'Arc has four statues. Lamartine, statesman, poet and revolutionist, has two effigies.

Fighting Fish.
The warrior of the fish is the Indian fighting fish, which is well versed in the art of fighting. They fight like a bulldog and would not stop fighting until one is killed. East Indian natives gamble on the result of the fight between two fighting fish, and the fishes are treated just the same as prize bulldogs.

Moving Letter From Prison.
A commission in an eastern state investigating jail conditions, requested letters from the prisoners. They told the prisoners not to be afraid to give them the facts about conditions. The first letter opened was eloquent. It contained a number of live insects. The board hasn't opened any more envelopes.—Louisville Courier-Journal.

Women as Plumbers.
From a note which appears in the columns of the Ironmonger it would appear that no fewer than 150 young women in New York are about to go to school to learn plumbing, carpentering and so forth. They seem to be thoroughly in earnest. The promoters of the school obtained $50,000 and the services of six teachers with scarcely any effort.

The boy's appetite is often the source of amazement. If you would have such an appetite take Chamberlain's Tablets. They not only create a healthy appetite, but strengthen the stomach and enable it to work naturally. For sale by all dealers.

Pretty Sure.
Whenever a man is threatened by the deep sea he is pretty sure to find the devil on the other side of him.

What Texans Admire is hearty, vigorous life, according to Hugh Tallman, of San Antonio. "W's find," he writes, "that Dr. Kingd New Life Pills surely put new life abe-nergy into a person. Wife and I lieve they are the best made." Excel- lent for stomach, liver or kidney trou- bles. 25 cents at Oberdorfer's.

A number of witnesses in the case have been summoned before the grand jury and examined, but nothing of an official nature has been given out in regard to the progress the grand jury is making in the case. Deliberations will be resumed on the opening of court this morning.

Brakeman Injured.

A. K. Lawson, of this city, a Louisville and Nashville brakeman, was painfully injured in the Covington yards yesterday morning when he was struck by a yard engine as he was preparing to leave on his train for the south.

Lawson, who was in the yards, was in the act of boarding the train which was about to pull out when a yard engine coming in on a siding struck him knocking him down and for a time he was rendered unconscious. He was picked up and medical attention hurriedly summoned, but it was found that his injuries were not serious, and to no more extent than a few slight bruises.

He was brought to this city and taken to the boarding house of W. D. Lykens, on Tenth street. Lawson is aged about 22 years.

Hart Had Local Connections

George M. Hart, deputy sheriff of Clark county, who was killed last Sunday night at Winchester by a gang of negroes, was one of the most prominent fraternal men of that city, besides being one of the most popular men of the county.

He was a son of Josiah T. Hart, of Clark county, and a grand nephew of Joel T. Hart, the famous sculptor, who before he achieved a world wide fame, was a resident of Little Rock, this county. His wife was Miss Theodosia Lewis and her father, Mr. Wm. Lewis, of Nashville, Tenn., is a cousin of Hon. H. C. Howard, of Paris, United States Minister to Peru.

The funeral of Mr. Hart was held at Winchester Tuesday afternoon, and was largely attended.

A dispatch from Charleston, W. Va., yesterday says: "Chief of Police Woodson McCord, of Winchester, Ky., arrived here tonight and will leave for Kentucky tomorrow with two men who are believed to have had a hand in the murder of Deputy Sheriff Geo. M. Hart, of Clark county, on the streets of Winchester Sunday night. Chief McCord will probably take his prisoners to Lexington, Ky., for safekeeping, as public indignation at the time of the killing of Hart was high and it is not believed it would be safe to take the prisoners back to Winchester."

"The prisoners arrested here gave the names of John Brooks and Joseph Wilson, but their description fits that of two of the men who are believed to have killed Hart. These men, all negroes, disappeared from Winchester the night of the killing and after a fight with a posse have not been seen since."

One of Hart's Slayings Caught.

Jim Brown, alias "Shine," one of the alleged murderers of Deputy Sheriff George M. Hart, of Winchester, last Sunday night, was arrested at Renick Station, three miles from Winchester, on the Louisville and Nashville, early yesterday morning. The negro was taken into custody at the store of Luther Reeves at Renick.

At an early hour yesterday morning Brown put in his appearance at the store. He seemed to be suffering intensely from the cold and from the left hand two fingers were missing. Several men around the store questioned the negro and he told of falling from a freight train sustaining the injury. He gave an appearance of suffering intensely from the wound on the hand, and a closer examination revealed a jagged bullet wound in the breast, evidently inflicted in the pitched battle which ensued when the posse pursuing the fleeing negroes came upon them on the VanMeter pike Sunday night.

The appearance of the negro led Reeves to believe that he was one of the negroes wanted for the murder and he telephoned to Winchester for an officer. Two members of the police department went to the store, where they placed the negro under arrest. At first he denied having any knowledge of the shooting but later admitted that he was with the gang that shot down the deputy sheriff but declared he did not do the shooting. He said that when the officer came upon him he said "Well, I've got you 'Shine,'" and no sooner had he spoken than one of the negroes with him fired the two shots which caused the death of the officer.

Since the night of the shooting the negro has been in hiding in a corn shock near Kenick. His wounds had no attention during the time he had nothing to eat. He had suffered intensely from the cold and the wound in his breast from all appearances looked to be very dangerous.

The police of Winchester are of the opinion that they have the man who committed the crime.

THEATRICAL.

"FRECKLES"

Neil Twomey's dramatization of Gene Stratton-Porter's widely read story, "Freckles," which will be the attraction at the Paris Grand tomorrow night is considered a fascinating story of Indiana's great swamp country, known as "The Lumberlost." The book has had more than a million readers, and "Freckles," the drama, is creating a furore. The fact that a book contains vital requisites for dramatization, assures us that the play is of more interest than the story, because the characters are living creations, and their dialogue life, not fiction.

Those who have read "Freckles," will understand the possibilities for a drama of far more than ordinary action, and atmosphere. There is unlimited scope for the scene painter, the electrician and the stage mechanic, who have availed themselves of the opportunity offered, and in these features the production is said to be of surpassing magnificence.

The dramatist in adapting "Freckles" for the stage has kept strictly to the text of the book. The familiar character of Freckles, a nameless waif when the story opens, and his development and manliness in the way in which he takes hold of life. The nature friendships he forms in the great Lumberlost swamp, the charm of his engaging personality and his love story with "The Angel," his various exploits with the timber thieves, are all intense and virilistic scenes in the play. Nothing is left to imagination. It is proving the success of the season everywhere it is being played.

Graves Marked.

So far as the earnest and careful search by one of their own leaders on the field of battle can assure, every Confederate soldier and sailor who died in a Northern prison and was buried nearby now lies beneath a headstone or a monument of marble. Gen. J. H. Berry, ex-Senator from Arkansas, the only surviving member of the committee intrusted by Congress with this task has just reported the completion of his work to the Secretary of War.
